

POSTPONED TILL 1893.

IMPORTANT AMENDMENT TO THE WORLD'S FAIR BILL.

Mr. Belden Attacks Chicago's Financial Plan and Mr. Candler Defends the Windy City--The District Appropriation Bill.

The Senate today passed a bill to enable the Secretary of the Treasury to obtain full information as to the condition and preservation of the fiscal interests of the Government in Alaska. Resolutions were agreed to calling on the President for copies of the correspondence in regard to the award made to the La Abra Silver Mining Company, and calling on the Secretary of the Interior for information as to land patented issued to Indians under the Severalty act.

Mr. Hoar gave notice that he would not call up the Montana election case until Monday next.

The Anti-Trust bill was taken up. Mr. George spoke in opposition to it. He was followed by Mr. Hoar.

In the House to-day, immediately after the approval of the journal, Mr. Candler of Massachusetts called up for consideration the World's Fair bill. The bill was read in extenso.

An amendment was adopted providing for the selection of the Government exhibit shall be chosen by the Fish Commission.

Mr. Candler opened the debate and expressed the satisfaction which he felt in being able to state that Chicago had proved itself before the committee equal to all that had been expected of it.

Mr. Candler then offered an amendment, to be considered as pending, providing for the selection of the Government exhibit shall be chosen by the Fish Commission.

After a short debate the amendment was agreed to.

The District Appropriation Bill.

About all of the District Government was transferred up to the Capitol this morning. The occasion was the hearing before the sub-committee of the Senate Appropriations Committee, which was set for to-day some time ago. This sub-committee was given permission to sit at any and all times, and it is in session all day to-day. It was designed to have officials representing all the various branches of the local government appear before the committee and to each present the needs of his own office.

All three of the Commissioners were present, and Senator Plumb, chairman of the committee, presided. Before 11 o'clock the hearing began.

Commissioner Douglas, as president of the Board of Commissioners, spoke first and introduced the various sub-committees, who one by one spoke to the Senators. The District Appropriation bill was under discussion, and it is long the sub-committee may not finish its hearing to-day. Besides the Commissioners those who were heard were Recorder Craggatt, Fire Chief Harris, Building Inspector Gotsdiner, Major of Police Moore, Superintendent of Schools Powell, Judge Albert, who explained the necessity of the codification of the District laws, Captain Lusk, Captain Russell and several others.

Mr. Plumb said that he did not think the committee would do more than listen to the statements submitted to-day, and that no action on the bill was likely to be taken to-day.

Two Election Cases Decided.

To-day the House Committee on Elections decided two contested cases. They were settled as indicated in the article of last Saturday. The cases in question are those of Posey vs. Barrett, from the First Indiana district, and Barrett vs. Buchanan, from the Ninth Virginia district.

In each case the committee decided in favor of the sitting member. In the Posey case the sitting member is a Democrat in each instance. In the Barrett case there were twenty votes difference, and in the Virginia district the difference was less than 500. But, being white districts, no charges of general intimidation or violence from the colored people were made. The committee was obliged to report in favor of the Democratic contest in each case.

Sugar Men's Arguments.

The sugar men came down in force upon the Republican bill to-day. The Ways and Means Committee to-day. Delegations from New York, Philadelphia, Boston and other places representing the refining interest of the country protested to the Republican members against the proposed duties on sugar. They represented themselves as satisfied with a cut of 25 per cent.

A number of Congressmen representing Western States opposed and argued in opposition to the refineries.

To Pension General Crook's Wife.

Mr. Farwell introduced in the Senate to-day a bill to pension Mrs. Mary Crook, widow of the late General Crook, at the rate of $2,000 per year.

The Postal Telegraph Proposition.

Gardner G. Hubbard of the District of Columbia concluded his argument in favor of the establishment of a Government postal telegraph system before the House Committee on Postoffices and Postroads to-day. He contended that the telegraph companies had built their lines and maintained them out of the tolls of the public, and that the Government should not be asked to subsidize their business. He contended that the telegraph companies had built their lines and maintained them out of the tolls of the public, and that the Government should not be asked to subsidize their business.

ADOPTED BY THE NATIONAL BOARD OF TRADE.

asking Congress to establish a postal telegraph system and in connection therewith to purchase the Wampanoag bill was a step in the right direction, and he read a resolution adopted by the New York Board of Trade heartily recommending the passage of the Postmaster-General's measure.

Judge Jackson Dead. Judge William L. Jackson, a prominent citizen of Louisville, died this morning. The news created a feeling of sorrow and regret among the Kentucky Congressmen, all of whom knew him well. They telegraphed messages of sympathy to the bereaved family. Judge Jackson was once Lieutenant-Governor of Virginia.

TO PURIFY THE BALLOT.

Bill Doubts the Constitutionality of the Saxton Bill.

ALBANY, N. Y., March 25.—Governor Hill's communication to the Legislature this morning in which he says that the Saxton Ballot Reform bill is now before him for consideration. The objects which it professes to accomplish are unquestionably commendable. Many of its features are excellent, and several have been recommended by the Governor in annual messages during the past two years.

But certain of its provisions are believed by the Governor to be in violation of the constitution of this State. A joint resolution was introduced in the Legislature respectfully requesting the Court of Appeals (first and second divisions) to convene at their earliest possible conference for the purpose of examining the measure and advising their opinion informally as to its constitutionality.

FATHER DONNELLY DEAD.

He was the Successor of Dr. McGlynn in St. Stephen's.

New York, March 25.—The Very Rev. Father Arthur J. Donnelly died very suddenly shortly before 1 o'clock this morning at his home, 503 Ninth avenue.

Father Donnelly succeeded Dr. McGlynn in St. Stephen's parish until a permanent successor was appointed, when he returned to his own parish, St. Michael's. Father Donnelly was 72 years of age.

A Famous Oarsman Dead.

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., March 25.—Homer Woodin, the famous oarsman, died in this city yesterday, aged 63 years. He was born in Poughkeepsie and had always followed the trade of a cooper. He was one of the crew of the four-oared shell boat "Stranger." The other members of the "Stranger's" crew were William Stevens, William Barger and Eckel Boneyway.

They and the Ward Brothers were the leading four-oared crews of the world.

Illegal Insurance Societies.

SOUTHFIELD, ILL., March 25.—Auditor Pavey has declared the Order of Tont, an insurance organization doing business in the State, has no authority therefor, and has instituted proceedings to close up the various lodges of the State. The order is run on the plan of a secret society and claims to pay enormous benefits. It is understood that the various lodges of the State will disband without litigation. Lodges at Alton and other southern points have already done so.

Extensive Steel Plant.

WEST SUTTON, WIS., March 25.—News of an important meeting of the West Sutton stockholders of the West Superior Iron and Steel Company reached this city yesterday. The company has decided to immediately construct a Bessemer Steel plant for the manufacture of steel plate and all manner of structural iron and steel work. The new plant will be extensive, and the estimated expenditure of $250,000, as estimated by President Weeks.

"One-Armed Buffalo Bill."

ST. LOUIS, Mo., March 25.—William Sullivan-Poley, known as "One-Armed Buffalo Bill," to-day stabbed M. Furey three times during a quarrel. Furey was arrested but escaped afterward and is now being pursued over the hills by officers. Furey is in a critical condition.
